

The Accessible Information Standard started on 1st April 2016.

This applies to all NHS and adult social care organisations.

The Accessible Information Standard is a new law to make sure that people who have a disability, impairment or sensory loss are given information they can easily read or understand.

The Accessible Information Standard tells NHS and adult social care organisations they must make sure people get information in different formats such as

There are 5 requirements of the Standard that our Trust must do:

Please inform a member of staff if you have any communication support needs. You need to help us make sure we get things right for you.
